Vogelsang Files For School Board

F. W. Vogelsang, incumbent school board member, has filed with Board Secretary Max Howard for re-election to the board in the April 2 school election.

He is the second incumbent to file for re-election. Mrs. Dana Monroe, acting board president, filed for re-election last week.

The two posts are up for consideration. A third candidate, O. A. White, Cameron, had filed for the unexpired term created by H. B. Pressley's resignation in January, but withdrew when the Texas Education Agency ruled the post must be filled by appointment on the board.

Howard said that the board would not appoint a new member until after the superintendent's position is filled.

The board secretary also said that the field of candidates for the superintendent's post had been narrowed and a new man would be named soon. About 25 applicants have been screened to about two final candidates, he said.

In a school board meeting Thursday, the board accepted the resignation of Jack Prescott as school tax officer and appointed Charlie Smith, Jr., to succeed him.

The board also okayed

ONE — A one - year extension for Turner Grocery lease.

TWO — A bid for a 1951 school bus for $279 from Pan - Am Equipment Co.

THREE — Voted to invite school patrons to a public hearing to discuss proposed changes in tax structure. A date has not been set.

Baptists Outline Completion Plans For New Church

Officials of the First Baptist Church, Cameron, have met with their architect to discuss final plans on the proposed $150,000 church building to be constructed this spring.

The two - floor colonial style structure will be erected on the site of the present building after the old sanctuary is pulled down.

Richard Moseley, chairman of the building committee, said that $83,504.24 has already been pledged or donated for completion of the building.

The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 450 and provisions for later addition of a balcony to seat another 100 worshippers.

Architect on the project is Frank C. Dill, of Houston.

Plans call for educational facilities for an enrollment of 30 on two floors. A choir room, office space and library will include the floor plan on both floors behind the sanctuary room.

White pillars and Colonial architecture will be carried out both inside and outside the brick building.

Planners are hoping to start dismantling the old structure this spring and complete construction of the new building by next fall, Moseley said.

County Lets Bid For Sandblasting Courthouse Exterior

The Milam County Commissioner's office has let a bid of $3,792 to Penner & Chaney, Fort Worth, for sandblasting and exterior cleaning of the Milam Courthouse.

Another bid for painting of outside woodwork and window cases on the county structure will be let separately, County Judge Don Humble said today.

It will be the first major face-lifting of the exterior of the building since construction work and outside sandblasting were completed by workers of the federal Public Works Administration in 1939.

The bid calls for sandblasting and steam cleaning the entire exterior, painting and caulking all joints and waterproofing the outside with waterproofing solution.

Penner & Chaney was the lowest bidder of a half dozen companies. Bids ranged as high as $18,000, Humble said.

The Fort Worth firm will begin work soon, he continued. Thirty working days have been allotted for completion.

Bids were opened last week in a regular Commissioners Court hearing.

Census To Start April 1 In Milam; Enumerators Sought

The 1960 population and housing census will get underway April 1, according to Marvin Petty, crew leader for the north half of Milam County.

A total of 26 enumerators will work in the northern half, Petty said. Six enumerators will work in Cameron four in Rockdale, one in Thornedale and the rest in rural county communities.

Petty said that enumerators are being sought. Anyone wishing to work as an enumerator may contact Perry in care of Buckholts, Texas, or call HI 6-5541, Rockdale as soon as possible, he said.

Enumerators are needed for the Cameron area. He said a civil service examination will be given applicants after all requests for jobs are received.

Residents will receive census information sheets in the mail prior to enumerators' calling. He urged that the sheets be completed either before or during the enumerator's visit.

Lott Man Suffers Severe Injuries In Horse-Car Wreck

W. A. Burnett, 33, of Lott, today is recovering from injuries suffered in a horse - auto collision 6:45 p. m. Sunday.

Burnett was rushed to a local hospital for treatment of a broken collarbone and a severe scalp laceration that almost descalped him. Police Chief Chester Simmons said. Simmons said the horse apparently got out of Burnett's control and galloped into the 1952 Ford driven by George A. Kahlig, 50, of Burlington. Kahlig and about six passengers in the car escaped injury.

Simmons said the horse had to be destroyed. Damage to the car was estimated at about $200.

Burnett was riding with about a half dozen other riders when his mount broke away out of the rider's control, Simmons said. Burnett was riding east on Eighth St. Simmons said that Burnett was coming out of sedation Wednesday.

Council Approves Election April 5

The City Council Tuesday approved a resolution setting the city election for April 5, accepted Lincoln Mondrik's resignation effective March 1 and heard a report on street building in a report.

And the board approved a request from a delegation from the Cameron Business & Professional Women's Club seeking authority to clear a 99 - year lease made with the city in 1935 so the group could build a club house.

Mayor Bassel Wilson and the entire Council said that Mondrik reconsider an earlier resignation, but Mondrik asked either immediate action on the letter or action as of March 1.

Mondrik told councilmen that he would not reconsider. His term runs until April 1961. Sam Houston voted against accepting the resignation while the other councilmen voted for it.

The Council also approved second readings of the city tax ordinance and an amendment of costs in the city garbage ordinance.

J. B. Earle, city public works superintendent, reported that paving would begin on the Fanning St. end of Sixth Street next week and that grading work was underway on West Main St. and North Crockett.

Councilmen also heard a letter from George Quinif, president of Walled Lake Door Co., asking if Cameron Airport could be improved for landing of his bi-motored plane. Officials said a check should be made of the airport facilities to see if the field could be maintained at Civil Aeronautics Bureau status.

Infrequent use of the field, said one official, made it difficult to

Wilson, 3 Others File For Office

Mayor Bassel Wilson, Councilmen Sam Houston and Roy Griffith and E. L. Wied, Cameron businessman, have filed for a place on the April 5 city ballot.

That brought the total of candidates filing for city office to five. Coleman Duncum, Cameron businessman, filed for the mayor's post in January.

Wilson filed Monday following circulation of a petition bearing the names of about 100 Cameron citizens. The petition also urged incumbent Councilman Lincoln Mondrik, Richard Moseley, Griffith and Houston to seek re-election or remain in office and recommended Wied for the one - year unexpired term of Hayden Lawrence, who died in December.

But Mondrik told councilmen Tuesday afternoon his earlier letter of resignation would stay in effect. The council voted to accept his resignation effective March 1.

Filing deadline for candidates is March 5, 30 days prior to the city election.

Wilson's filing was the first since Duncum filed in January. Houston and Griffith filed after Wilson announced he would run for re-election. Wilson had announced in January he would not seek re-election due to criticism of city work projects in recent months.

Wilson and the councilmen urged Mondrik to withdraw his resignation submitted two weeks ago, but Mondrik said he would not reconsider under any circumstances.

keep the field cleared and in readiness for heavy plane traffic.

The Council also approved purchase of four barrels of insecticide spray and paid a bill of $999.93 for lights for the Little League Park.

City Atty. Jack Prescott also recommended that the city tax a clause stating the City Council's power to regulate cab rates.

Little League Needs $400 More For Park

The Cameron Little League still needs about $400, according to Chester Simmons, vice - president of Cameron Little League.

He said money is needed for player insurance, balls, bats and incidental equipment and for fees to join the National Little League Association.

Bassel Wilson, president of the group, cited a contribution from Ray Green, sophomore student at Southern Methodist University, who gave $5.

"If he can give $5 as a student, Cameron can find the money to complete the park and Little League program," Wilson said.

Simmons reminded prospective league players that they can help pick up rocks and bricks from the field 1 p. m. Saturday to help clear the way for final grading and grass planting.

The park has light poles erected, lights paid for, fence and backstop already completed.

Contributions may be sent to Cameron Little League in care of Cameron Herald or Radio Station KML.

Simmons said.

His resignation was originally accepted as of the time of the election, but he asked that it be accepted in time to allow someone else to file for the post.

The petition drafting Wilson and recommending the other three men was presented the mayor over the weekend.

A minimum of 25 names are required by Texas law on a petition to place a name on the ballot.

Wilson and Houston will be seeking their second two - year terms. Griffith has been on the council

BULLETIN
John A. Smith, and Homer Allen, Cameron have filed for the City Council, Place 5, for the unexpired term vacated by Lincoln Mondrik, according to City Sec. John Andrews.

They filed Wednesday. It brought the total number of candidates to seven for five places up for election.

And it is Wied's first time to run for city council.

Moseley told The Herald he was still undecided on whether to continue in office. He has filed for the representative's race in Robertson and Milam Counties.

Both Houston and Griffith said they would not seek re-election if Mayor Wilson did not run for office this spring.

Wilson said he appreciated the confidence the people in Cameron have placed in him and the council.

County Plans To Issue Bait Tomorrow Here

County officials this week announced a distribution schedule for poisoned bait and a man from the Sharp Community was bitten by a rabid cat Monday.

The double action followed on the heels of the Milam County Commission's decision to begin a control program on predator animals to reduce the spread of rabies among livestock in the county.

Elmer Rinn, 25, of Rt. 1, Buckholts, is taking a series of anti-rabies shots in Cameron after being bitten Monday by a pet house cat at his farm home.

The cat was diagnosed rabid by the Texas Health Dept. in Austin. Rinn was bitten as he was feeding the cat a saucer of milk.

The Herald was told that the cat attacked Rinn as he reached down to place the saucer in front of the animal.

Austin lab's head was sent to the Texas Health Dept. where a positive diagnosis of rabies was made. Rinn began the rabies shot series immediately.

Rinn was the first person in the county known to be bitten by a rabid animal.

Poisoned bait will be distributed from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Friday February 19 at the Milam County Health Unit Judge Don Humble said.

He said it will be ground horse-meat with port cracklings treated with strychnine alkaloid powder. Mixing and dispensing of the bait will be under supervision of the United States Dept. of Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service.

He said the bait is only lethal for 10 days.

Humble urged all land owners to put the bait out immediately. And he said that owners of domestic pets keep their pets penned up for two weeks to avoid contact with the bait.

The county judge reported another rabid animal, a calf, about three miles east of Ben Arnold.

County commissioners voted the rabies control program following a public hearing two weeks at the Milam Courthouse.

Dr. A. B. Rich, chief veterinarian of the Texas Health Dept., told the group of the rabies epidemic declared by state officials in Milam, Bell, Robertson and McLennan Counties.

The three - point, state - recommended program was adopted by the Commission following Rich's talk and discussion among 60 area businessmen, farmers, ranchers and veterinarians.

The program would:
ONE — Immunize all dogs outside corporate limits of county cities and within Milam County. The Court invoked a state law allowing maximum punishment of a $200 fine and county jail confinement for non - compliance.

TWO — Control stray dogs throughout the county.

THREE — Control and reduce foxes, skunks and other wildlife spreading the disease in the four county area.

Veterinarians say that it is unusual for a cat to contract rabies and indicates the danger of the spreading rabies epidemic. Untreated rabies cases are fatal to human life.

HAVE YOU MET WOLLEY SEGAP?

Avid television viewers have more than likely been introduced to Wolley Segap from watching our yellow page spot announcements over KTBS Channel 7.

For those of you who have not met this character Wolley Segap is Yellow Pages spelled backwards, and twice a week he gives you helpful hints on how the Yellow Page section can be of service to you.

"I wonder where to find..." I bet you've heard that statement many times by folks looking for a particular product or service. You've probably said it yourself.

There's really no need to wonder though. Not when you can refer to the yellow pages.

There are 24 pages of classified listings and advertisements, listing the products or services Cameron business telephone customers have to offer. So look first in the Yellow Pages of the Cameron Telephone Directory. A fast, easy and convenient way to shop. Try it, won't you? It's Cameron's more complete shopping guide.

BIGGEST STORY OF ALL

The other day I saw a couple of school kids dart into E. 10 street, unaware of an approaching telephone truck. But the driver spotted them at once. He slowed to a stop and waited until the youngsters crossed the street. Then he went on his way.

I got to thinking about this incident later. What I had seen was a quiet drama of safe driving that would never make front-page headlines the way major accidents do.

Yet here was the biggest story of all — the kids who aren't hurt crossing our streets in Cameron, the accidents that don't happen... because good safety habits prevent them from happening.

Driving safely is everyone's duty. But for telephone men it is more than a duty. It's a way of life. It is part of that special sense of responsibility that goes with telephone work. We call it the Spirit of Service.

EXTENSION PHONES IN COLOR

Do you have a one phone problem? More and more people are discovering the convenience of having more than one telephone in the home. Phones in the bedroom, playroom, kitchen, workshop or elsewhere soon prove their value in time and convenience. And you'll be pleasantly surprised at the small monthly cost of more phones in your home. Extensions cost only $1.00 per month and a small one time charge for the decorator color of your choice.

Poage Sees Need
For Farm Bill

By Congressman W. R. Poage

Appropriations and taxes are normally the two items which control the length of legislative sessions. The appropriations bills are coming from the Committee earlier this year than I have ever known. At the same time, the Ways and Means (Taxation) Committee is working steadily, but there seems to be considerable feeling that there will be no far-reaching tax legislation this session. This leads Members to look forward to a relatively short session, with adjournment just before the political conventions in July.

As I see it, we desperately need to pass a farm bill before adjournment. Farmers need it; taxpayers need it; and, politically, the President's Agricultural Message was interpreted by most of the nation's press as a challenge to the Democrats. The catch is that he still threatens a vote of anything except his own plans.

The only positive action recommended was to remove all production controls from wheat with price supports "set at a percentage of the average price."

He did not say what percentage. He has, in the past, always advocated a very low percentage. The Agricultural Advisory Committee has just officially estimated that were we to abandon all control and support programs, net farm income would drop 40 percent. Of course, we can't stand that kind of drop. The only other recommendation the President makes is to rely on the "Food for Peace Program" -- how, he does not say -- "Spend more money on Research" -- he promises to appoint a "Coordinator for Utilization Research" -- and, finally, to extend the "Rural Development Program. These are laudable objectives but they don't pay any current bills.

Along with a number of other Democrats, I have introduced a Farm Program which allows the producers of each commodity which is expected to be in surplus to work out a program with the Secretary of Agriculture. That program can include any machinery which does not involve further government accumulation of the increase in storage costs. Next the program would be required to bring about a balance between demand and supply. If we will quit growing, accumulating and storing surpluses, we will have gone a long way toward solving our problems.

This bill provides the largest possible degree of self-determination of the art of farmers. It provides a large degree of self-help, both by controlling surpluses and by using surplus to pay for future land retirement. It is far from perfect; it will be gone over in detail; it will be changed; it should be; but it provides a real constructive program which I hope we can offer to the President and to the nation.

Taxpayers Entitled To At Least One
Personal Exemption

"Each taxpayer is entitled to at least one personal exemption of $600 in filing his Federal income tax return for 1959, A. P. Andrews, administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service at Temple said today.

He added that a taxpayer who was 65 or older, or who was blind at the end of '59 is entitled to an extra exemption. If both conditions existed, the taxpayer gets two extra exemptions of $600 each. Identical exemptions for the same conditions apply to his wife when a joint return is filed.

A taxpayer who files a separate return may claim his wife's exemption or exemptions only if she had no income and did not receive more than half her support from another taxpayer. He added that, in determining income in a community property State, such as Texas, the total combined income of husband and wife is considered one-half attributed to each.

If the husband or wife died during 1959, the number of his or her exemptions is determined as of the date of death.

In Badgers Wins

Carroll Glaser swished the nets for 56 points in two games last week to race Buckholts' Badgers past Sharp February 9, 75-30, and Lexington Friday, 71-53.

Glaser's eagle eye caught the range for 12 field goals in a rout of the Sharp team. Bobby Malovets hit for 20 points, including eight field goals.

Sharp played 13 players in an effort to slow the Buckholts drive and put together a winning aggregation. Top scorer was Ronnie Locklin with 7 points followed by Robert Ottmer and Clyde Caffey with 6 each.

In the Friday tilt, Glaser ripped the nets for 15 field goals and two free throws for 32 points, highest total for the season by a Buckholts player. Malovets also scored 18 in the high-scoring game.

Lexington fielded two sharpshooters in Curtis White with 22 points and James Hudson with 20.

Buckholts led all the way after gaining a 10-point lead in the first quarter, later jacking the game.

Crispy Pancake Hash

A tasty new hash, cooked pancake style and folded like an omelet, is an altogether delicious way to transform leftovers into a hearty low-budget meal. It's "Crispy Pancake Hash," made by combining tid-bits of cooked ham with such budget-stretching ingredients as crispy saltine crackers and a can of mushroom soup. The crackers add special good flavor and crunchy texture, and the soup is used to make a truly deluxe sauce to serve with the hash. Here's the easy way to make it:

Crispy Pancake Hash
4 cups coarsely crushed
Krispy Saltine Crackers
(about 76 single crackers)
1 medium onion, grated
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 1/2 cups ham
3 cups diced cooked ham
6 tablespoons shortening or bacon drippings
1 10 1/2-oz. can condensed cream
of mushroom soup

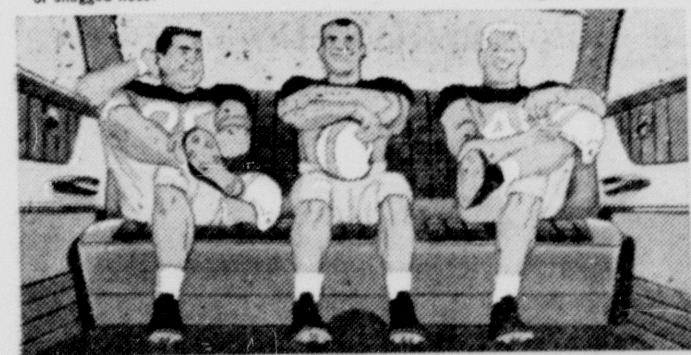

Combine ham, onion, salt, pepper and 1 cup of the diced ham in a large bowl. Let stand 5 minutes to soften crumbs. Heat shortening in a large skillet. Pour crumb mixture into skillet and pack it firmly over the bottom. Pull mixture away from edge of pan with a spatula, to allow a "trough" of fat to circulate around it. Cook over low heat for 12 to 15 minutes. When steam begins to escape from surface, lift one edge; and, when lightly browned, fold pancake in half and roll it on to a heated platter.

Meanwhile, using soup, prepare mushroom cream sauce following directions on can. Stir in remaining diced ham. Heat and serve with hash. Makes 6 servings.

Crappie Good Spring Catch

By Vern Sanford

You can catch crappie anytime, but it's easier in the spring. At this season of the year the crappie, notably a roamer, settles down closer to home . . . with thoughts of spawning.

They swim in tight groups, all at the same depth. Find one of the schools and you can get your limit before breakfast.

Crappie abound everywhere -- in rivers, lakes and streams. But it was with the advent of big dam building in Texas that they really came into prominence. Dammed up water submerged many a tree and that is the kind of habitat crappie like most.

All you have to do is locate such a spot.

If you're on the lake, look for a stump sticking out of the water. Go there and tie your boat to the stump. If it's the top of an old submerged tree, you're in business.

For bait, use minnows, or any bait that resembles a minnow. Small spoons, spinners, or jigs will get results.

While the lure or bait must be small, the hook should be large. The crappie's mouth is big, but tender. So he must be handled with care to avoid tearing the hook out.

A small hook will work through the delicate structure of the crappie's mouth. On the other hand, a big hook grabs more of the light gristle, therefore holds better.

A good rule to follow is to figure that the crappie is just off the bottom. So let the minnow down until it touches, then pull up a couple of turns of the reel.

Stay right there for a couple of minutes. If nothing happens, start reeling up very slowly. It won't hurt to jiggle the bait lightly because a crappie loves a slowly moving target.

It's important to note the depth where the first crappie takes hold. That's where all his brothers and sisters are. Also it's a good idea to put a blue or red pencil mark on your line to indicate where to stop letting out line.

Spinning gear is ideal for crappie fishing. To begin with, the crappie is a small, sporting - type fish. He requires no big rig. He wants his food presented in a natural way, and a spinning outfit is tops.

Although a big hook is recommended, it can be the wire kind-light, without restricting the minnow's movement.

If there is room, the angler can let his minnow swim free without any sinker. But if necessary or desirable, he can put a split shot in the line, say a foot and a half above the minnow. That gives the live bait a little room to move around.

Some crappie fishermen use bobbers. That's all right, provided the rule is observed that the bait must get down to the depth where the fish are.

A bobber will mark the distance, and you can rig up your

Optometry Society

Hears Dr. Jennison

The Heart of Texas Optometry Society met at the Cameron County Club Tuesday night February 9th. The Society was honored to have as its speaker the state president of the Texas Optometry Assoc., Dr. Edward Jennison of San Antonio. Also present was Mrs. Judith Block of Waco who is the state president of the Womans Auxiliary to the T. O. A.

The Heart of Texas Society is composed of Optometrists from Waco, Temple, Bryan, Marlin, Hamilton and Teague.

crappie outfit so the bobber will keep track of the depth.

My preference is to get the crappie by feel, not by movement of the bobber. A crappie strike is very light, very gentle. He may even touch the minnow or lure a couple of times before he decides to take it. When he does, he often swims up with it, so that you have to reel in to find out if he's on there.

Once you feel his weight on the line, don't set the hook as you would with a bass. A hard pull would be likely to tear the hook out. Simple pull up, reel in enough to keep the tension in and you'll get him.

Somewhere between the depth where he's hooked and the place where you are, he'll offer a little resistance, but not much. Nobody ever called the crappie a fighting fish.

He makes up for that deficiency by being a willing feeder and by his excellent flavor when properly cooked.

The crappie, like most fish, lives where he finds the most cover and the most food. In his hiding place, such as an old sunken tree, he is in the midst of branches where you're going to foul and lose hooks, sinkers, and line.

That's part of the game and is to be expected.

So when you go crappie fishing, take plenty of equipment, because you're going to lose part of your rig now and then. If you don't you are in the wrong place for crappie.

But the loss is small compared to your gain, if you get a string of these silvery beauties.

387,000 Vehicles To Be Inspected

"There are over 387,000 motor vehicles still to be inspected in the Waro - Central Texas Region," Capt. E. C. Smith, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, said today.

Capt. Smith, Service Commander for the Department of Public Safety's Motor Vehicle Inspection Service in this Region, pointed out that the 46 counties comprising the Department of Public Safety's Waco Region have a total of 517,557 motor vehicles registered. Of this number only 130,035 vehicles have been inspected for the current year. This means, with only two months remaining until the April 15 deadline, many motorists face the possibility of waiting in line at one of the state approved inspection stations.

"You can have your vehicle inspected now, while the weather is good," Capt. Smith said. By doing it now and avoiding the last minute rush you can save time, as well as wear and tear on your nerves. After April 25, 1960 anyone who operates a motor vehicle on the public highway must have a 1960 inspection sticker, for the vehicle. Failure to obtain this sticker can lead to arrest and as much as $200.00 fine. The requirements are the same as they were last year; brakes, lighting equipment, horn or warning device and windshield wipers will be inspected as to their working condition. Also, Capt. Smith reminded all motorists, no inspections will be made involving road test while it is raining or the streets are wet.

Rabies Cases Hit

High For February

Laboratory confirmed cases of rabies in Texas were still above the usual incidence last month. A state health department rabies control specialist warned that some sections of the state "Are in position to expect further increased incidence of this disease unless preventive measures are instigated."

A total of 66 positive cases were confirmed from 36 counties between January 3 - 30. The five-year January median is 50 cases, Dr. A. B. Rich said.

Rich, director of the department's division of veterinary public health, blamed abundant susceptible wildlife as the main source of rabies trouble.

"I think Texas has more wildlife now than I have ever seen before," Rich said. "But through the years it has been difficult to stimulate interest in wildlife rabies."

Eight counties sustained live-stock losses to rabies during January. Dr. Rich said such losses are usually due to rabid wildlife.

"It is quite evident that dogs are a relatively minor factor to date," said Rich. "Let's hope for the sake of humans they remain so."

Of the total 66 diagnosed cases last month, only 13 were dogs. The obvious danger of wildlife rabies -- aside from the possibility of direct exposure of hunters, campers and other sportsmen to that foxes and skunks can easily expose dogs, and dogs thus become a source of human exposure.

Last month Rich said that Central Texas counties along the Brazos River appeared to be most seriously affected. But he said after studying the January rabies picture "there begins to be a doubt in my mind whether or not the Brazos Basin is any worse off than other parts."

Rabies was diagnosed in 37 counties last month.

In response to Rich's urging last month, commissioner courts in Falls, Milam and Washington Control programs under authority granted to them by law.

The emergency measures consist of compulsory vaccination of owned dogs, stray dog impoundment and reduction of wildlife populations, chiefly foxes and skunks, which are said by Rich to be the principal species involved in infection among Texas wildlife.

"I use the anti-freeze I advertised in the Want Ads myself -- and I'm never cold!"

"Sea Of Love" Is Title For Rogers Baptist Banquet

The Sweetheart Banquet given by the First Baptist Church of Rogers was the best attended in recent years. "Sea of Love" was the theme of the banquet, held in the church parlors, with decorations depicting ocean scenes on the walls and the tables. The center pieces of the tables were scaled models of boats, the table covers were sand colored. Sound effects during the banquet were those of rolling waves on the ocean. The toastmaster was Rev. Edmund Lacy. There were about 50 young people at the banquet.

The Rev. Larry Robinson of Baylor University, pastor of Val Verde Church was the inspirational speaker of the evening with vocal music given by Mrs. Claudia Lee Wellborn of Waco, accompanied by Miss Beverly Green of Rogers. Dub Bailey, Educational Director gave the invocation.

Miss Cupid elected during the banquet was Peggy Green and Mr. Cupid was J. Hugh Green.

"Grandparents' Day" To Be New Feature Of Rogers School Week

The 11th annual observation of Public Schools Week in Texas has at least one new feature this year in Rogers, according to Superintendent B. F. Harbour, which is a special "Grandparents' Day". Wednesday, March 2 is designated as that special day this year for the older citizens who are often neglected.

The school will give ice cream treats to the room or class in each division that registers the most grandparents of students in that room on Wednesday. Recognition will also be given to the grandparents with the most grandchildren currently attending the Rogers Public Schools, the oldest grandparents and the ones who come the greatest distance.

As a language arts program all students throughout the school will write letters of invitation to their parents or to neighbors or friends of the family, to visit school during Public Schools Week. In addition to registration desks in each classroom throughout the week, the high school Student Council will staff and operate a guild, information and registration center in the main foyer.

The Rogers Parent Teacher Association will also take an active part in the annual week. Their March meeting will be moved to Monday February 29 in order to hold a meeting that week.

Regular classroom work will be carried on throughout the week for that is the main objective in getting parents and other school patrons to school - to see the real work of the classroom teachers. There is no public assembly or convocation planned for the week.

A Broader Scope

The Cameron Herald is introducing a broader format of news analysis and commentary with this issue and is expanding into another news department in the doing.

Herewith, your Milam County newspaper will present a weekly page of church news directed to a more thorough coverage of Milam area church activities.

And The Herald's editorial page will present weekly analysis and reports on political representatives in Austin and Washington.

Special features to be presented for your readership will include special columns written by area Washington representation. And the "Letters" column will present notions of interest written by Milam Countians who wish to comment on various topics of the day.

The Herald recently added "Do You Remember?" a review of stories in The Herald 20 and 40 years ago.

We hope that Herald readers of every age and political view will contribute to the "Letters" column and make a weekly review of this page a "must" on the schedule.

Existing features such as "Little River Philosopher", a weekly capital report and others will continue to hold their place in the weekly forum.

We invite you to read with interest the views of your representatives and other citizens on topics of public importance. Only by personal analysis can we make sense out of the complex world of events around us.

And we invite you to contribute news of various church activities for the expanded space now available.

While most of us turn away from things "political", we all know that indifference is the atmosphere that breeds misinformation and exaggeration and finally misdirection.

If by a more thorough editorial presentation The Herald can bring you closer to the spectrum of events that affect each Milam area resident, we will have focused some attention on things of social, cultural and political substance.

COUNTY

Census Reveals Problems

The 1960 census, due to be taken in April, will show the marked shift in Milam population that really began in 1940.

Like trends all across Texas, the shift has been from farm to city living. On a county-wide basis, population has grown from about 19,000 in 1880 to a peak of 40,000 in 1900.

From 1900 to 1930 the population stayed at about 38,000, then began a gradual decline that was halted at 23,585 with the coming of Alcoa in the early 1950's.

During this period, Cameron, for instance, has grown from a village of 1,700 in 1890 to 3,500 in 1900. Then came a gradual increase to 4,400 in 1920, followed by even more gradual growth to a census count of 5,052 in 1950.

Cameron's growth has been more spread out than Rockdale's, due primarily to the strength of agricultural-business development here. With the coming of Alcoa, Rockdale's population soared from 2,321 in 1950 to a 1957 estimate of 6,300.

So it has gone with county population. Considering present estimates of county and various city populations, more than half of Milam County's population is in Cameron and Rockdale. Cameron's population is currently estimated at 7,200 and Rockdale at 6,300, for a total of 13,500 people.

A recent survey showed that half of Texas' 9.4 millions live in seven cities and that three out of four Texans live in cities.

The 1960 census will undoubtedly verify the estimates of these trends during the 1950's.

The constant flux of population shift presents two problems for Milam County: helping the farmer clear the almost impenetrable forest of farm controls that play havoc with his operations, and helping the towns locate industry that will employ the people once employed in farm jobs.

Washington is agast at the complications of the farm picture. Just recently, Rep. W. R. Poage, who is a member of the House Agriculture Committee, voiced opposition to an Administration plan of expanding the conservation reserve program. Poage introduced a bill to reduce surpluses and insure producer income.

And Cameron, for instance, faces the problem of locating additional industry to hold current populations in the face of competition of other Texas cities. Continuous concerted effort through the Cameron Chamber of Commerce, an Industrial commission and other agencies could bring about the development needed here.

The trend of population tells the story. A trend of development and working together will determine the continued upward development of county towns and help stop the shift of rural population.

Demos To Review Precinct Custom

By Vern Sanford
AUSTIN — Democratic County Executive Committees will decide on March 14 whether to change the old custom of holding rural area precinct conventions in the daytime.

New election law passed last year has already doomed a number of Texas political traditions — like announcing when the dogwood comes out and serving watermelon at election rallies.

Primaries are now held the first week of May and June, instead of the last weeks of July and August, as before.

Another change is that a person who wishes to participate in a Democratic precinct convention must already have voted in the Democratic primary held the same day in order to have a poll tax stamped "Democratic."

City precincts won't be affected. There, customarily, the precinct conventions have been held after the polls close at 7 p.m.

In rural areas conventions usually have been held in the afternoon. This enabled people to come in, attend the convention, vote, buy their groceries, all in one trip, and get home in time to do the milking.

Now there is the necessity of giving everyone time to vote before the convention can be held.

State Democratic Chairman J. E. Connally has suggested county committees give thought to holding rural precinct conventions later — possibly not until after the polls close at 7 p.m.

LEGISLATIVE RACES

With 120 of the 150 House members making a bid for re-election, each of the two leading candidates for Speaker claims that half or more of these probable returnees is pledged to him.

Most active in the speaker's race are Reps. Wade Spilman of McAllen and James Turman of Gober. Some are predicting the race may be as long and hard as the last one between Waggoner Carr and Joe Burckett.

Thirty House members are either retiring from public life (including Burckett) or seeking another office (including Carr). Of the 120 who are running again for the House, 82 have opponents. This means there'll definitely be no decision on the speaker's race until after the primaries.

Neither Turman nor Spilman has an opponent for his House seat.

Of the 16 senators up for re-election, all are running again and ten have opponents.

Unless there should be an unusual number of "upsets", legislative turnover should be about the same or less than usual.

"Normal" replacement is about one-third of the House (or 50 members) and a very small number of senators, usually not more than two or three.

TROJAN HORSE

Consideration of a federal aid to education bill in Washington has Texans reacting with mixed emotions.

It also adds new urgency to the efforts of those who want to see Texans shoulder school improvement responsibility through passage of the Hale-Aikin program.

Gov. Price Daniel said Texans should accept U. S. Senate passage of the federal aid bill as "fair warning" that Congress will step in if states don't take the necessary action.

If the states let in federal money they will let in federal control of schools, the governor declared. He called "impossible" the idea of "federal money without strings attached."

Under the aid bill pending in Congress, Texas would receive $62,000,000, largest share of any state, from a $1,833,000,000 appropriation. Thus far, very few Texas school districts have refused to take the federal aid now available — for science teaching equipment, school lunches, etc.

Dear Sir:

I thought you might like to have this news item.

A fox attacked our dogs in the yard Sunday morning about 4 a.m. Seeing that the fox looked very thin and sickly, we took it to Dr. Tittsworth and he sent the head to Austin for a rabies test. It came back positive.

Now the sad thing is we don't remember when their vaccination expires or if it had already expired. We thought we had a record of it, but can't find it. We gave them another shot the following day and have the dogs enclosed in a high pen to keep them under observation.

This really should be a warning to every dog owner to see that their dogs are vaccinated. Our dogs are valuable to us, besides having a great sentimental value.

Pal is the old dog and Susie the smaller one. They look very much alike, especially their coloring, and everyone thinks Susie is an offspring of Pal, but they are not related in any way. Susie's mother belonged to the Coast Guard in New Orleans. Pal's mother was a registered Leopard stock dog, the father a bird dog.

Pal has killed 42 rattlesnakes that we know of. He can catch them behind the head in a way they are unable to bite him, and shakes them to death in a matter of seconds. Susie helps with everything, but is not quite so good at it as Pal.

You should hear them sing or

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

Did you ever attend "amateur night" in an old-time vaudeville theatre? I did — several times — in the Star Theatre in Memphis. Amateur night was, as I recall, on Friday night and anyone could enter — but he did so at his peril. Those who could sing, dance or play a musical instrument had an opportunity to appear before an audience and a chance to win one of the cash prizes.

The house was packed and the audience was the judge. Those that the crowd liked, they applauded. If they didn't like a performer, they would boo, hoot and even pelt with peanuts. But the most cruel form of disapproval was the cry of "Get the heck out!" And out from the wing would come a long pole with a semi-circle of padded metal and the luckless performer would find this about him and would be yanked from the stage. Yes, it was perilous to try to please the audience on amateur night.

Nevertheless, I once took part. Well, I was not a performer; I was what you might call the promoter or producer of an act. It came about in this way:

I was in the eighth grade at Prescott (now Guthrie) School and lived on Chelsea. Next door were two brothers, several years younger than I, named Harry and Harold. I was the owner of a set of boxing gloves so I said to the twins, "Why don't you and him fight on amateur night?"

Since this was not to be a real fight but an act, I felt a little rehearsing was in order, so I said, "Harry, you will win the first round; Harold, you will win the second round; the third and final round, you are on your own."

We reported at the alley door of the theatre and were admitted back stage. When the time came for the bout, the sight of brother against brother appealed to the crowd. All went well in the first round, which was won by Harry, as agreed. The second round however, Harold got a little too vigorous and knocked Harry down. Up the batter bounced and tore into his brother. Harold gave punch for punch and the crowd roared. The bell rang but they still stood toe-to-toe, slugging until the assistant stage-manager, who was the referee, halted it.

They won second prize which was $5. As I recall, I gave them half. After all, I had thought up the idea, furnished the gloves and wrote the script.

THIS WEEK:

Wonders Why 'Pop' Records Got That 'Payola' Treatment

Dear editor:

There's a problem that's been worrying me all week and I'd like to have you clear it up for me. It's about these disc jockeys.

As I understand it, Congress has uncovered some odd things about the business of phonograph records, but what has been puzzling me is the fact nobody has mentioned the oddest thing about it.

Up to now, Congress, I guess sort of resting its mind in between investigations of the missile lag, has turned up the fact that certain disc jockeys have been taking side pay from some phonograph record companies to play their records over the air. The way it works is, the record companies make a record, they send it to the disc jockeys, then send them a little cash and the disc jockeys play these special records oftener than others, thus making a hit out of them.

Congress has said this is outrageous, that it's wrong to give one record special attention over another. Also, radio stations have said it's wrong, and a lot of disc jockeys have been fired.

Well, up to this point, I guess Congress and the radio stations are right, but what everybody seems to have overlooked is: What sort of colossal insult is this to the teenagers of the United States?

You mean to tell me a disc jockey can make a record popular with youngsters just by playing it over and over? You mean to say teenagers don't make up their own minds on these smash hits? You mean to tell me they didn't really and truly love "Hound Dog," they just heard it so often they thought they did? And then went out and bought it by the millions? Or at least kept every juke box in the country roaring out the thing? These are the questions I'd like for you to answer for me.

Personally, I'm not taking sides in this thing, but I'll tell you, either Congress has a lot of tall explaining to do to teenagers, or teenagers have a lot of tall explaining to do to the rest of the country. Somebody is making these records popular, and I hope Congress can find out who.

New Cotton Laws Vital To Grower

COLLEGE STATION — Agricultural legislation passed by Congress last year has real significance for cotton producers in 1960 and future seasons. The law establishes new provisions which cotton producers must follow if they are to maintain their allotments.

First, according to C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist, if a farm allotment is under a Soil Bank contract or the Great Plains Conservation Program have two choices.

They must plant at least 75 percent of the allotted cotton acreage, or release sufficient acreage to meet this 75 percent requirement to the county ASC committee for reappointment to other growers in the County. For example, a farmer with a 50-acre allotment may decide to plant only 38 acres since this is over 75 percent, or he may plant 30 acres and release as few as 8 acres to be distributed to others.

Bates explained the release is made for one season only and will not reduce the future allotment of the producer releasing the acres. Also, it will not help the producer planting the acres to get a larger allotment next year and finally, the released acreage cannot be used to set up allotments for new growers.

The third stipulation of the new law requires that cotton must be planted on the farm holding an allotment one year in three. This means that a producer could release his cotton allotment for two successive years, but the next year must plant at least 75 percent of his allotment in order to preserve the full acreage.

Cotton production is a good "multiplier" in the local economy, said Bates. By this he means the more cotton that is produced, the greater will be the amounts of fertilizer, petroleum products, labor and other items needed to service this production. After it is grown, the ginning, hauling and processing of lint and seed provide employment and require other services in the county, district and state. It benefits a large number of citizens.

Cotton producers should do their part to hold county allotments.

Roadside Markets

Offer Opportunities For Big Selling

COLLEGE STATION — In rural areas, well-traveled highways average a daily traffic volume of 5,000 cars per day. Heavy traffic such as this creates a sales challenge to farmers who produce for roadside markets.

Before starting a roadside market, J. E. Rosborough, retired extension horticultural marketing specialist, emphasizes the many aspects which should be considered. Is your proposed location a good one? What products can you grow and sell and can you get extra supplies from growers nearby? Will your roadside market fit in with the rest of your farm operations? Can you invest in a suitable structure and attractive signs? Do you enjoy meeting and talking with people? These facts, Rosborough points out, are important considerations if you are planning to sell at the roadside.

Location is one of the most vital factors. The market should be on a wide road approach and should be clearly visible from a distance. The better the view, the better business — provided what the people see is good. You should select a site where people have easy access to the stand from both directions. Adequate parking space off the road and adjacent to the building is necessary.

Use large displays to catch the prospective customer's eye, says the specialist. When he stops, get your selling ability into action. Freshness is one of the most valuable qualities a farmer has to sell. Remember, the specialist cautions, customers never consider immaturity, over-ripeness or generally poor quality a bargain at any price. You should offer packages of produce in various sizes.

As for price, products sell in wholesale markets between 10 and 15 percent below retail prices. Rosborough adds that politeness and cordiality, as well as a desire to develop customers who like you as well as your products, are essential.

Safeway To Give Gold Stamps Soon

Safeway Stores will begin giving Gold Bond stamps with purchases here Monday, according to S. D. Ripley, local manager. The Gold Bond Company is the second largest independent stamp company in the nation, with headquarters in Minneapolis and a Division Office in Dallas, with Mr. Elliot Srebnick in charge.

Ripley said that the placing of stamps in stores here is an expansion of the program which has placed Gold Bond stamps in 10 of the 25 Safeway Divisions.

Gold Bond premium centers will be established in the area soon, with premium catalogues to be distributed to residents of this area within the next ten days.

4-H Club Notes

By Robert W. Hoermann

Ass't County Agent Barbara Michalka, St. Anthony 4-H Club, is preparing information for a talk before the St. Anthony school students on 4-H Club work, during National 4-H Club Week, March 5-12.

4-H Club members with broilers on feed for the Houston Fat Stock Show are Roy Dean and Henry Tomasek, Jr., Ad Hall, Larry and Arvell Jungmann, Buckholts, and Henrietta Richter, Cameron. Judging will be March 2 at 8 a. m.

Dan Davis, Sharp 4-H, has started practicing to enter the Junior Tractor Driving contest at Stephenville, April 9. Operating a tractor is a lot more than driving. He is studying maintenance and safety as well as practicing driving.

Each year as the planting and harvesting season gets under way, there are many tractor accidents due to carelessness.

A few rules to follow are: have all safety shields in place, do not wear ragged or loose clothing around pulleys and shafts, stop the tractor to check seed boxes, do not make turns at a high rate of speed.

These are but a few of the many hazards around farm machinery. Remember, the finger, arm, leg or life that you save may be your own.

In pruning fruit trees, a person should have a definite plan in mind, whether the trees are young or old. Prune young non-bearing trees to shape the trees so the main branches will be well distributed up and down and around the trunk.

Older trees should be pruned to reduce weak growing wood, enhance spraying, and to assist, a

WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE!

Compare this list of Chevy advances with the features ordinary trucks are still talking about. You'll see why Chevy trucks get more work done in a day... why they go extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. These Sturdi-Bilt Sixties aren't just new, they're a full scale revolution!

TORSION-SPRING RIDE

Each front wheel, suspended independently of the other, is free to step individually over bumps. And shockproof torsion springs up front soak up the jars and jolts before they reach the body. With three rugged new tailored-to-the-truck rear suspensions to further reduce road shocks, Chevy gives you the smoothest truck ride you've ever felt.

NO SHIMMY, NO WHEEL FIGHT

Drive a '60 Chevy. Just once. Right away you'll notice the absence of I-beam shimmy and wheel fight common on ordinary trucks.

CABS FOR BIG GUYS

Big guys get a bigger break in a Chevy cab. There's plenty of space inside to stretch out and relax; more room for hats and hips, more room for wide shoulders and long legs. There's horizontal visibility through a windshield with 26% more glass area; a new see-at-a-glance instrument panel. Cabs are safer, too, up to 67% more rigid.

plant height, and lodging are available at the county agents office. Growing conditions over the 3-year period at the seven locations varied considerably and probably represent a fair cross-section of the growing conditions that may be expected in this large area. Average yield of the 15 hybrids and varieties grown in all 25 tests was 2990 pounds per acre.

"Average over 100 bushels corn with fertilizer program"

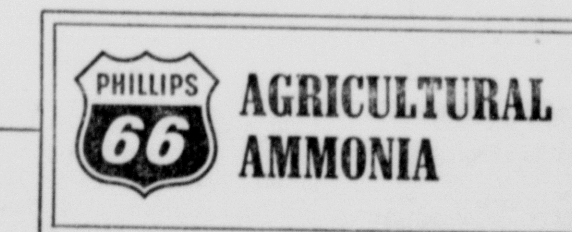

EDWARD SENKEL AND SON, OF ROGERS, TEXAS, report it's a "must" to apply ammonia for top yields

"You just can't go wrong using ammonia along with a balanced fertilizer on corn and cotton. We have used 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia per acre for many years and have averaged over 100 bushels of seed corn," says Edward Senkel.

"My son, Hal, used Phillips 66 Ammonia to grow 148 bushels corn per acre and win a Texas Hybrid Corn Contest. We also use ammonia to help cotton average 1 1/2 to 2 bales. Phillips 66 Ammonia is definitely part of our farm management program," he says.

Thousands of Texas farmers use Phillips 66 Ammonia to help assure top net profits per acre. Field reports prove that Phillips 66 Ammonia (1) produces more high grade lint (2) increases sorghum grain and corn yields (3) boosts wheat and small grain yields (4) stimulates pasture growth for more meat and milk.

See your local Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia Distributor now. You can make more money this year with this 82% nitrogen fertilizer. It can be applied by you or your distributor.
